LATE XMAS BUYERS NOW FILL STORES

Merchants Urge Patrons to Facilitate Business by Carrying Small Purchases.

It is too late to shop early, but it isn't too late to make the best of the time that intervenes between now and Christmas.

All shopping done between now and next Friday will be late shopping and the men, women and children who patronize the stores and shops should do everything possible to facilitate and expedite their purchasing and the work of the store managers and clerical force. From now on the congestion in the stores and shops is bound to be great. The only way to shop in anything like comfort or satisfaction is to visit the business houses between 10 o'clock in the morning and 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Shoppers from now on must take the risk of not having their purchases delivered, and the safest plan is to carry all packages and bundles that can be transported personally. Postmaster Chance advises those who intend shipping Christmas gifts by mail to get their packages into the postoffice well in advance of Christmas Day, otherwise there will be no certainty of delivery until after December 25.

RAT-BAT, RARE BIRD, HITS WATCHMAN IN THE FACE

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—A rat-bat, said to be one of the rarest and most poisonous of animals which have ever put in an appearance in this country, flew from a pile of hides in a warehouse at William and Pearl streets, striking a watchman in the face.

The watchman, who declined to give his name, was taken to Volunteer hospital for observation. Doctors had examined the bat and pronounced the poison with which its veins are filled to be of a deadly nature.

"PROBLEM?"

Ted Booth Will Say It Is, After Taking New Job.

2 HOURS TO SPARE

Congressman Mapes Gives Secretary Race for A. M. Honors.

Some problem? Ted Booth, secretary to Congressman Mapes, thinks so. Getting down at 9 o'clock.

Ted comes from the middle West. In his home town the hour for reporting for duty is 7 o'clock. Congressman Mapes comes along and offers Ted the job of secretary.

"But you must be on the job at 9 o'clock," said Mapes. "Nine o'clock!" exclaimed Ted. "Why, Congressman, I'll be on the job so early I'll have a couple of hours to spare."

But Ted is in Washington. He is on the job. Sometimes he beats Mr. Mapes to the office.

"What is it?" asks Ted. Here I am fresh from the West, where getting to work early is a virtue. I hit Washington with all manner of high resolves about getting down early, and now I'm lucky if I get to the office before the boss."

Ted is waiting for an answer. "Some problem," he says.

CARDINAL GIBBONS HAS REGAINED HIS HEALTH

BALTIMORE, Dec. 17.—The condition of Cardinal Gibbons is "improving steadily," and the prelate now is nearly back to his normal good health. It was said today by Dr. Charles O'Donovan, his personal physician.

The cardinal has not fixed a definite time for his return from the Shriver home at Union Mills, where he has been ill for two weeks. Dr. O'Donovan said. There is no reason why the trip should not be made as soon as the Cardinal wishes, he added.

Shall the Immigration Flood Be Dammed?

Something more like panic than enthusiasm is manifested by our growing army of idle workers, which already numbers two million, according to the American Federation of Labor, over the vast reinforcements from the war-broken countries of Europe. Immigration officials, says the New York Tribune, state that seven out of ten of the immigrants now entering this country are dependents—mostly women, children, and old men. Mr. Frederick A. Wallis, Commissioner of Immigration at Ellis Island, says that he is informed that eight million emigrants are ready to come from Germany as soon as peace is declared, and he adds, "what will happen when the bars of Russia are let down can only be guessed." Other authorities and editors, however, deny and minimize all these alleged dangers, arguing that virtually every immigrant produces more than he consumes, and is, therefore, an asset rather than a liability; that instead of a labor surplus in this country we have an actual shortage of "cheap" or unskilled labor, the result of the stopping of all immigration during the war; that the farms, particularly, need such labor if they are to do their part in building up national prosperity; and that, as the New York Herald summarizes this point of view, "when we contemplate barring out immigration altogether, we contemplate economic suicide."
